Iowa Bicycle Coalition: Luke Hoffman, Executive Director of the Iowa Bicycle Coalition (IBC), provided Fayette & Clayton County level results for the Economic Impacts of Cycling in Iowa's 99 Counties study. The Iowa DOT covered 80% of IBC's costs of facilitating the study with a federal grant for $25,000. IBC is now actively raising the remaining 20% of funds to cover their core costs. Hoffman asked if organizations would be willing to chip in $500-$1,000 to sponsor the study project, suggesting $500 per county whenever possible. Sponsorship would come with various benefits:

- Add logo to IBC webpage dedicated to the project
- Mention sponsorship in marketing materials for the Bike & Trails Summit
- Verbal thank you at Bike & Trails Summit
- Offer 2-3 additional free tickets to the Bike Summit, as desired
- Add logo to marketing emails that reference the study
- Mention sponsorship in any future press releases
- Already provided the results for no charge
