Annual Report Presentation Updates: Hanson reported that she presented to the Fayette County Board of Supervisors on December 8th and the Elkader City Council on December 22nd. Upcoming presentations:

- January 19th at 7:00pm - Elgin City Council

Project Updates:

- Flowers in the Corridor (TRRC) - The Fayette County Community Foundation grant application was not funded; however, Hanson has submitted a request to a private family trust for consideration of a $10,000 donation to fund the Fayette County installation. Hanson will present an agreement to both the Clayton County and Fayette County Conservation Boards to take ownership of the art installations once they are completed and has planned a meeting in mid-January with the artist, Gamm, and Van Meeteren to move forward with a spring/summer installation.
- Pedal Paddle Racks (TRRC) – Hanson reported that Dan Slagel and Family donated $2,500.00 to cover the cost of the Pedal Paddle Racks project. The project committee met prior to this meeting to finalize plans for installation and promotion this spring/summer.
- Clermont Trail Expansion (FCCB) – Hanson is working with the Fayette County Engineer and Fayette County Conservation to assist with grant writing and project development for expansion of the trail from Clermont to Hwy 150.
- Pony Hollow Trail Expansion (CCCB) – NEPA clearance has been secured for the project. The project is on track for an April 21, 2026 letting and Clayton County Conservation is working on recording easements and submitting final plans by January 20, 2026. The goal is for construction to begin June/July 2026.
- Motor Mill Stabilization (CCCB & Motor Mill Foundation) – Clayton County Conservation is awaiting guidance from SHPO and other state agencies on how to move forward with the project due to mixed recommendations from engineers and technicians for the final phase of the project.

Consider Approval of Lawful Custodian of Public Records: Open Meetings Law dictates that public entities must identify the lawful custodian of public records to comply with requirements for Iowa Code Chapter 22.
